Case No. 07 Civ. 8545 (LLS)

Plaintiffs,

AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE

-against-

BNI Construction, Inc.,
Mikial Abdur-Rahim and
Musa Last Name Unknown,

Defendants.

State of New York)
)
County of New York) ss:

JEREMY MURPHY, being duly sworn, hereby deposes and says as follows:

1. I am employed as a paralegal at Constantine Cannon LLP, counsel for plaintiffs in the above-captioned matter. I am familiar with the proceedings in this case and have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein.
2. On or about October 5, 2007, I contacted Howard Goldman, Esq. of Demovsky Lawyer Service ("DLS"), a process serving company, by telephone. The purpose of my call was to hire DLS to serve copies of the Summons and Complaint on the defendants in this matter, BNI Construction, Inc. ("BNI"), Mikial Abdur-Rahim ("Mikial") and Musa Last Name Unknown ("Musa"). As to defendant Musa, I instructed Mr. Goldman to attempt service at BNI's office, 300 West 147th Street, Suite 1C, New York, New York 10039, because it was (and is) my understanding that BNI is Musa's actual place of business. See Dkt. No. 1 ¶ 7.
3. DLS attempted to serve copies of the Summons and Complaint on defendants on seven (7) occasions, each on a different date and at a different time. Attached hereto as Exhibits A and B are true and correct copies of Affidavits of Attempted Service by DLS that describe those seven (7) occasions. As the Affidavits reflect, on none of those seven (7) occasions was DLS successful. See Exs. A, B.
4. On October 30, 2007 at approximately 2:10 p.m., I attempted to serve copies of the Summons and Complaint on defendants Musa and Mikial at BNI's office. While I was there, defendant Mikial verbally confirmed in response to my inquiries that that location was in fact BNI's office and that he was in fact Mikial. I served copies of the Summons and Complaint on Mikial personally by placing the documents in his hand. See Dkt. No. 6. I asked Mikial if Musa was on the premises at that time, and Mikial responded that he "never see[s] him [Musa]." I understood Mikial's statement to indicate that he does in fact know Musa, but that he just does not often see Musa at BNI's office. I asked Mikial if Musa would be in the office later that day or in the near future, and, contrary to Mikial's earlier statement indicating that he does in fact know Musa, Mikial responded that he did not know Musa. Mikial refused to accept service of the Summons and Complaint on Musa's behalf.

5. On or about November 4, 2007, I attempted to determine Musa's residential address by using the New York City Department of Finance Automated City Register Information System ("ACRIS"), which can be accessed on the New York City Department of Finance's Internet website. Users of ACRIS can obtain information regarding real property in the city by inputting the address of a given plot of land about which information is sought. I input into ACRIS an address that, I had been advised, might belong to Musa, but the information that ACRIS returned regarding that address did not refer to Musa or to any individual with a similar name. Therefore, it appeared that that address did not belong to Musa, thus that I would not be able to serve copies of the Summons and Complaint upon him there.

6. On or about November 7, 2007, I attempted to determine Musa's residential address by utilizing PeopleFinder.com, an Internet website through which, for a fee, one can obtain public records regarding an individual. The address that PeopleFinder.com provided that appeared most likely to be Musa's was 1657 8th Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11215. On that same date, at approximately 5:45 p.m., I attempted to serve copies of the Summons and Complaint on Musa at 1657 8th Avenue in Brooklyn. When I arrived there, I discovered that it is a residential building with multiple apartments. I did not know which (if any) apartment belonged to Musa, and none of the names on the building directory resembled Musa's. Therefore, I was unable to locate Musa and/or to serve copies of the Summons and Complaint on him at that location.

7. On or about December 12, 2007, at approximately 11:30 a.m., I (a) affixed to the door of BNI's office, with masking tape, a sealed envelope addressed to Musa containing copies of the Summons and Complaint and the Order for Conference Pursuant to Rule 16(b) (Dkt. No. 2) (the "Rule 16(b) Order"), and (b) caused an envelope that did not indicate on the outside that it was from an attorney's office or concerned an action against Musa, and that contained copies of the Summons and Complaint and the Rule 16(b) Order, to be placed in First Class U.S. Postal Mail for delivery to Musa at BNI's office. On December 28, 2007, I caused a second envelope that did not indicate on the outside that it was from an attorney's office or that it concerned an action against Musa, that contained copies of the Summons and Complaint and the Rule 16(b) Order, and that was marked "Personal and Confidential," to be placed in First Class U.S. Postal Mail for delivery to Musa at BNI's office. I served the Summons and Complaint on Musa by these means because, despite our diligent efforts to serve Musa personally and to determine his residential address, as described above, we had been unable to do so.
